

We are a dynamic and market-oriented enterprise in the region of Lake Constance. We develop, integrate and test power electronics for space applications. Our customers, predominantly space agencies and satellite manufacturers, appreciate our technological efficiency, our competitive price structure and our reliable supplies.

To enhance our team in Salem – Neufrach, we have an immediate opening for a

Quality Assurance Engineer for Power Electronics (m/f)

Responsibilities:

- Quality and product assurance
- Execution of analysis (e.g. Worst Case, Parts Stress, FMECA, Reliability)
- Definition, administration, updating and approval of QA/PA documents
- Definition and updating of work instructions and process description
- Project- and customer support
- Participation in audits and certifications

Requirements:

- Successfully completed electronic studies at an university or similar institutions
- Professional experience with simulation programs e.g. Orcad PSpice
- Experience in power electronics, circuit technique and digital electronics would be an advantage
- Independent working and interest in development of technology
- Excellent teamwork skills
- Good German and English skills verbally and written

We offer:

- Long-term employment in an attractive and modern work environment
- Interesting and diversified tasks in a dynamic enterprise with flat hierarchies
- Attractive enterprise location with high recreational value (Lake Constance region)
- Support at house hunting

Would you like to work in a dynamic enterprise of air and space technology? Then please send us your detailed application (email preferred):

Advanced Space Power Equipment GmbH

Ms Radegunde Schmidt
In Oberwiesen 16
88682 Salem – Neufrach

Phone: 07553 – 9180 500
Mail: bewerbung@asp-equipment.de http: www.asp-equipment.de